HOW TO PLAY

L-Brain, Master Control of Balangool, secured in SECTION Z of Fortress Balangool, headquarters of this brutal enemy force, transmits communications throughout the universe. Balangool Space Soldiers receive instructions from L-Brain while engaged in interplanetary invasions. Their goal is to conquer the universe.

Balangool Captains are stationed at each stage, guarding giant super-powered transmitters. Strong, red barriers surround two transmitters found at Stage One. To clear these red barriers you must destroy the Enemy Generator supplying power to the barriers. Should you successfully eliminate the generator, proceed to eradicate the Balangool Captain. For only then can you proceed to another Stage.

As you progress, increase your supply of weapons and energy. Without them, you cannot reach SECTION Z to bring L-Brain Master Control to extinction, heroically saving Planet Earth.
